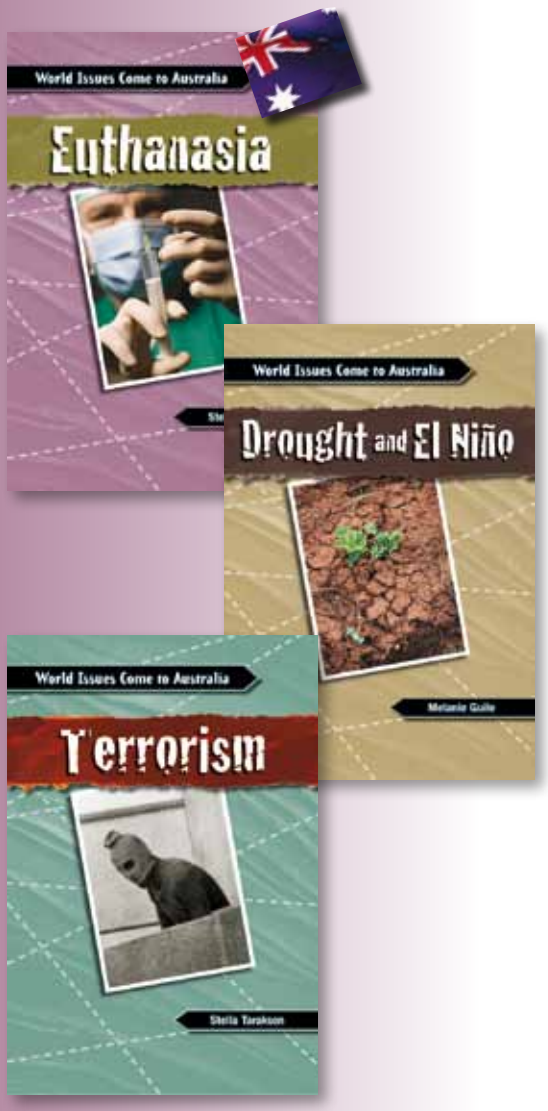
World Issues Come to Australia

Paperbacks

NEW FOR JANUARY!



Author:	Various
RRP:	$14.95
Extent:	48 pages
Age Level:	Years 5 to 9
Format:	245 x 175 mm

This series supports the study of issues and events of importance to the Australian community by looking at several issues that are newsworthy on both a local and global scale. What is the impact of these issues on the everyday life of Australians? What are the differing viewpoints and debates surrounding these issues? Features of each book include profiles of significant people and organisations, quotations, timelines, flow charts and tables.

Key features:

- Details of a significant international issue, including events, people and places related to the issue, and its impact on Australia
- Profiles of significant people and organisations related to the issue or an event
- Quotations from significant people related to the issue, to prompt discussion and debate
- Use of timelines, flow charts and tables to present information
- Judgement call boxes that present two sides to an issue and encourage students to evaluate their opinion
- Photos (two per spread) with detailed captions.
