Paperbacks

Author: Various
 List price: $14.95
 Extent: 32 pages
 Age Level: 7 to 12 years
 Format: 280 x 210 mm

Can you imagine what life was like for convicts transported to Australia? What were the new colonies really like? What crimes were convicts convicted of, and what jobs did they end up doing in the new colonies? To answer these questions and more, read the Australia's Convict Past series.

Each title is written as a narrative from the perspective of an ex-convict, to give students an idea of different aspects of convict life. Although the narrator is a fictional character, all the primary sources used in each title and the people, events and places mentioned are real.

Features of this book include:

- ★ Narrative text incorporating primary sources, including letters, diary entries, newspaper articles, government reports and memoirs
- ★ Historical photographs
- ★ Fact boxes with extra information about the text
- ★ A detailed glossary explaining difficult words or concepts
- ★ A 'Find out more' section listing print resources and where to find web links related to the topic
- ★ An index.

Actual text size:
 Your offence may have been a petty one, but the judges are not in the least concerned about the nature or extent of the crime.
